JUMP 'N FUNK — "America's Original Afrobeat Party" — marks opening day of Miami Book Fair with an unforgettable night of music, visuals, and community. Launched as an after-work gathering at NYC's fabled Shine Nightclub to raise awareness about the undisputed King of Afrobeat, Fela Anikulapo-Kuti, Jump 'N Funk has since traveled the globe, partnering with artists, venues, arts institutions, and museums worldwide.

At the Fair, Jump 'N Funk founder RICH MEDINA teams up with the legendary KENNY DOPE (Masters at Work • Kay-Dee Records) — a four-time Grammy nominee and one of the most influential producers/DJs in global dance music history — alongside immersive visuals by MARK HINES/THE MARKSMEN to deliver a dance experience like no other.

This tribute to Fela's revolutionary fusion of funk, jazz, and African rhythms also serves as a timely companion to one of this year's featured works — Fela: Music Is the Weapon, a new graphic novel by JIBOLA FAGBAMIYE and CONOR MCCREERY.

FREE SPECIAL OPENING DAY PROGRAM!

AN EVENING WITH LIHI LAPID ON I WANTED TO BE WONDERFUL: A NOVEL

 This is a FREE ticketed event that includes free access to Street Fair. For information on how to access all other programs, visit MiamiBookFair.com.

LIHI LAPID's latest novel follows the lives of two women in their first years of marriage and motherhood. One is a fictional character trying to live the happily-ever-after many imagine for themselves; the other is inspired by the author herself, relating the most intimate moments of her life. Both start their marriages full of idyllic happiness, but as the stressors of everyday existence seep into their daily lives, that spark of young love begins to dim. I Wanted to Be Wonderful is a tale of metamorphosis — from independent working woman to mother — shattered dreams, and finding the strength to gather up the pieces and learning to smile again. Joining her in conversation will be ROCHELLE B. WEINSTEIN, who will present her new novel, We Are Made of Stars, at the Fair on Saturday, November 22, at 11 a.m.

Our climate is melting down. But BILL MCKIBBEN, one of the first to sound the climate crisis alarm, insists that this moment is also full of possibility. Here Comes the Sun tells the story of the sudden spike in power from the sun and wind, and of the fossil fuel industry's desperate fight to hold this power at bay. But you can't hoard solar energy or keep it in reserve. It's available to all and more than just a path out of the climate crisis: It's a chance to reorder the world on saner and more humane grounds. There's no guarantee we can make this change in time, but there is a hope — in McKibben's eyes, our best hope — for a new civilization, one that looks up to the sun, every day, as the star that fuels our world.

ON AN INSIDE JOB: A NOVEL

TICKET This is a ticketed event that includes the book and two (2) tickets for entry ($35), and free access to Street Fair. For ticketing options and information on how to access all other programs, visit MiamiBookFair.com.

From New York Times bestseller DANIEL SILVA comes a tale of murder, greed, and corruption. Art restorer and legendary spy Gabriel Allon has been commissioned to restore one of the most important paintings in Venice, but when he discovers a body floating in the Venetian Lagoon, he finds himself in a desperate race to recover a lost Leonardo da Vinci masterpiece. The misattributed portrait of a young girl had been gathering dust in a Vatican storeroom for more than a century. And because no one knew it was there, no one noticed its disappearance — except the ruthless men behind the theft and the mysterious woman found in a watery grave. An Inside Job proves once again that Silva is the reigning master of international intrigue and suspense.  This is a ticketed event that includes a signed copy of the book ($35) and free access to Street Fair. For ticketing options and information on how to access all other programs, visit MiamiBookFair.com.

KENNY CHESNEY went from outside the Knoxville, Tennessee, city limits playing sports and loving music to defining the sound of coming-of-age in the 21st century. Rewriting and refocusing what a song could be, he fused rock, reggae, bluegrass, and scores of positive energy to become a stadium-sized superstar and the only country act in Billboard's "Top 10 Touring Acts of the Last 25 Years" for the past 15 years. A songwriter, groundbreaker, visionary, and regular guy, he'll speak with award-winning music critic and his HEART • LIFE • MUSIC co-author HOLLY GLEASON about the journey to get here, a Nashville being forgotten, the thrill of meeting and befriending his heroes, and why pretty normal people can do incredible things.

PLEASE NOTE: All session attendees will be required to undergo a bag check and go through metal detectors and/or be wanded by security prior to entering the venue. This is NOT a concert; Chesney will be appearing at MBF25 to present his new book, ONLY.

MIAMI BOOK FAIR POSTER

The Miami Book Fair poster — a bespoke work of art that reflects both the event and our city — is made possible by an important collaboration with New World School of the Arts. Through it, some of Miami’s most talented emerging young artists are granted the opportunity to glean inspiration from the place they call home, flex their creative muscles, and get real-world experience while building their professional portfolios. This year, Ian Teresa-Calleja submitted the winning design. His vision was informed by Miami’s ever-evolving landscape — from gleaming skyscrapers to revitalized streets and neighborhoods.

“I wanted to draw a parallel between the city’s physical growth and the personal growth we experience through reading,” said Teresa-Calleja. “Books, like cities, help us build new ways of thinking. That process isn’t always easy, but it’s powerful — and worth it. Most of all, I wanted to create something inviting, a world that draws you in, just like a good book does.”

The 2025 poster beautifully captures a special moment in Miami, a city in transformation that continues to grow and build, with Miami Book Fair as a fundamental part of its foundation.

IAN TERESA-CALLEJA is a Miami-based artist and graphic design student at NVSA who’s especially interested in how design can connect people. His work revolves around typography as a tool for visual communication and how type can be used in creative and expressive ways. And while that medium is at the heart of his practice, he’s currently diving into packaging design, exploring how design can live in physical spaces and make an impact on everyday life.

Brain surgery is a relatively new and mysterious profession, but in Gray Matters: A Biography of Brain Surgery, DR. THEODORE H. Warm, rigorous, and deeply insightful, the book shares what it's like to hold the scalpel, wield the drill, and extract a tumor — when every second can mean life or death. Through case studies that bring to life the complexity and fragility of the brain, readers explore the injuries and surgeries of U.S. presidents, actors, world-class athletes, and others, and critical moments where surgeons made a crucial difference, in a book that's as full of science and history as it is heart and humanity.  This is a ticketed event that includes the book ($35) and free access to Street Fair. For ticketing options and information on how to access all other programs, visit MiamiBookFair.com.

American business icon BARRY DILLER reveals his successes, failures, and struggles with surprising intimacy in an engaging memoir. Writing in his singular voice, he delivers an astute business memoir, an unvarnished look at Hollywood, a primer on media, and a frank coming-of-age story. His ascent was meteoric and his media savvy arguably changed the course of American culture. Never cowed by the talent — actors, directors, and producers — Diller worked with them all and championed “creative conflict.” He also recognized our digital future and grew a billion-dollar constellation of brands, including Tinder and Expedia. And he recounts his family life, regrets, and marriage to Diane von Furstenberg, where he’s found fulfillment. Who Knew holds nothing back. Moderated by local NBC6 News anchor KRIS ANDERSON.

Like wind on a lake, ARTHUR SZE's 12th book of poetry, Into the Hush, extends a language that ripples and stills, conjuring a cast of fruit trees and gunshots, butterflies and chemistry, animals and man. Drawing on craft honed over decades of writing, these poems earn their profound simplicity, moving with imaginative power and emotional force. Sze harnesses a range of innovative forms to respond to the challenges of our nuclear age — endangered cultures and the exigencies of climate change — exploring what it means to write on a planet struggling against the Anthropocene, to “make lines/against a void.” Writing at the height of his powers, Into the Hush is a landmark publication through which Sze enacts a thrilling journey from silence into sound. Joining Sze in conversation is poet CAMPBELL MCCGRATH, Fever of Unknown Origin.
